Congresswoman Candice Miller Visits US Army Garrison-Selfridge

by Liz Fournthey

Deputy to the Garrison Commander

In mid-December, Congresswoman-elect Candice Miller (Republican-Michigan), 10th District, took time from her busy schedule to visit the Garrison. During the visit, she met with LTC Craig Johnson, Commander, US Army Garrison, and was provided an orientation and current issues briefing by the Garrison staff. The briefing included: Mission and functions of the Army Garrison, infrastructure and funding challenges, homeland security, housing improvements, and other initiatives.

The Honorable Miller was sworn into office in January and is now serving in Congress. She is a long time supporter of SANGB and is very interested in continuing to assist the Selfridge community in the coming years. LTC Johnson is certain that Congresswoman Miller departed with a broader understanding of the Army's role here and some of the challenges the Garrison is working in order to serve the joint military community more effectively.

Our Country, Our Children: Protecting Them Both

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month in the Military

To All Garrison Personnel and Residents:

Our Armed Forces exist to protect and defend our constitution and its citizens. As American citizens we protect our nation's future by protecting our children.

Military service members, civilian employees, and family members make a positive contribution to the growth and development of their children by:

- Building strong commitments to protect our children with family, friends, neighbors and the community.
- Instilling confidence in our children by modeling appropriate behaviors.
- Acknowledging that child abuse is one danger we can control.

Officially, April is the month when we celebrate the well being of all children in our Military family. April is both the "Month of the Military Child" and "Child Abuse Prevention Month." This year, our campaign slogan is "Our Country, Our Children: Protecting Them Both."

Every member of our community should understand that:

- Child abuse is never appropriate and violates military values and undermines our mission.
- Everyone in our community is responsible for preventing harm to our children.

Here are some ways you can help:

- Keep yourself and your children out of potentially dangerous situations.
- Stay informed and connected.

• Communicate regularly with other families and their children.

• If you see child abuse, report it to authorities.

• Volunteer and share your time and skills with other parents.

I support our Family Advocacy Program in its child abuse prevention mission and encourage you to turn to them for information and assistance.

Child abuse prevention is a command priority at US Army Garrison-Selfridge. During April 2003 and throughout the year, join us in protecting America's future by protecting our children.

Child and Youth Services

April is the Month of the Military Child

Throughout the month of April, military installations in the United States and all over the world will sponsor and coordinate a wide variety of events specially planned for our over one million young military and DOD dependents.

America's military children are raised in a diverse environment. They have the opportunity to experience different, even unique, ways of life and cultures during their childhood years. As they move from place to place, they are constantly facing new challenges, continually taking part in new adventures, and forever meeting and making new friends.

April is the month when we celebrate them and the special part they play in our lives; in the lives of their own families; in the lives of those of us who belong to this community, who support them; and in the lives of all Americans as part of our country's future. Please join Child and Youth Services (CYS) and the Selfridge and TACOM Communities in commemorating the month and the very special young people it honors.

Selfridge to Host First All Armed Forces Earth Day

by Colleen Manuszak
MWR Programmer

The first-ever Selfridge All Armed Forces Earth Day (AAFED) celebration will be a five day activity, from April 21-25. Garrison-Selfridge employees and members from the 127th Wing Civil Engineering Squadron formed a committee several months ago to assist in coordinating activities for AAFED. As a joint military installation that comprises all five branches of the military (Army, Air Force, Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard), the committee decided to rename Army Earth Day to All Armed Forces Earth Day. Renaming Army Earth Day gives the entire Selfridge community an opportunity to participate in these fun and educational activities.

Our goal is to provide awareness to children and the Selfridge community on the importance of the environment through a variety of environmentally informative activities. The first activity is a "Keep America Beautiful" Poster Contest for grades kindergarten through eighth. Beginning the first of March and running through the end of the month, children in the local school districts will have the opportunity to participate in the "Keep America Beautiful" Poster Contest. The winning school will be selected based on the total number of entries submitted. All participating schools will be presented a certificate at an upcoming school assembly. The winning school will be presented a plaque at a special presentation assembly.

The second activity will be the construction of birdhouses. Pre-school children will paint pre-constructed bird houses and first through eighth graders will design and build their own birdhouses. The birdhouses will then be placed in several locations throughout the installation, so children can observe their daily habitat.

The third activity is "Beautification Day." This is an event that the entire Selfridge community, including military, family members, youth and civilians can participate in by cleaning around their homes and base facilities. The event is scheduled for April 23 from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m., concluding with a light snack/lunch in the Top 4 Picnic Area. All participants will receive an AAFED T-Shirt.

The final activity for our celebration of AAFED will be planting a community tree with a plaque dedicating AAFED 2003. The tree planting is scheduled for April 25 at 2 p.m., and the tentative location is along George Avenue in front of the exchange and commissary.

Our desired outcome is for AAFED to reinforce the importance of caring for our natural resources through educational and recreational activities. Although our concentration is the youth of our community, AAFED will provide awareness to the entire joint military community. We're excited about this, since it is the first time Earth Day has been recognized jointly. We're looking forward to many more Earth Days in the coming years. As always, we encourage your participation and feedback - we need you to help us make things the best they can be!

Issues like neighbor disputes, pet control, operating hours of retail outlets can be resolved by contacting the appropriate agency or at the next Selfridge Town Hall meeting.

There are four workgroups this year: Family Support, Force Support, Housing,

USAG Commander Addresses Initiatives

by Joe Stockslager
Marketing

A topic on everyone's agenda is future initiatives, and certainly a never-ending task. LTC Craig L. Johnson, US Army Garrison-Selfridge Commander, recently gave a rundown on what is going on right now, and what we can expect to see in the future. Some initiatives have been completed, others should be completed by the end of this year or next, and still others are years down the road.

LTC Johnson stated the Garrison is constantly working to visibly improve the appearance and quality of housing and facilities. Late last year, the Bowling Center's parking lot was reconstructed, and the Autocraft Center received new windows and interior painting. Tasks due for completion this year include renovation of the Enlisted Barracks (Building 325), the first phase in installing new windows in Seville Manor, an expanded parking lot for Building 780, and painting of the Chapel, Autocraft Center, Thrift Shop, Military Clothing Sales Store, Bowling Center, and the exterior of the Vandenberg Conference Center (Building 328). Vandenberg is also slated for installation of new windows in April 2003.

Aside from Garrison building improvements, the Command is also reviewing the feasibility of offering more public school choices for the main installation.

Those people who will still be here in three to five years can look forward to many changes. A new Lodging facility right on Lake St. Clair, an all-in-one Sports & Fitness facility, a new Child and Youth Services building, relocation of the Post Office, renovation of current housing along with construction of new housing, and a self-serve car wash are just some of the plans. Outdoor Recreation is shape, we also need to evaluate the usability of what we already have and eliminate condemned structures. According to LTC Johnson, buildings 476, 776, and 911 are all scheduled for demolition.

The Garrison is also considering the development of an on-post Homeland Security complex, allowing area non-DOD agencies to establish interoperability by occupying vacant Garrison buildings.

When asked "what can the residents of Selfridge do to better the community," LTC Johnson said the most important thing is to provide feedback. He encourages Selfridge residents and customers to use all of the feedback tools provided to communicate desires and needs. Feedback tools include customer comment cards, whether on paper or on the web site, town hall meetings, Garrison surveys, the Commander's Hotline (307-4680), and the newly established MWR Customer Feedback Line (307-4999).

If customers are not using the Selfridge facilities, LTC Johnson wants to know why. Feedback is important to keep our facilities current with what is offered off the installation. He wants customers to remember that, money spent at Selfridge in MWR facilities stays at Selfridge, and is used to maintain facilities with the intent of making life better for all service members right here at Selfridge.

LTC Johnson is a firm believer in the Team Selfridge concept. He is dedicated to working closer with all organizations located on the base in order to ensure the best possible services are available to residents. Through working together, we can provide greater support to the residents, tenant units, employees and the community.

Celebrating 61 years, AER Kicks Off the 2003 Annual Campaign

Generous Michigan Soldiers Donated Over $7000 in 2002 Campaign

by Pat Mayfield

Army Emergency Relief Officer

March 1 marks the beginning of the Army's 61st annual Army Emergency Relief (AER) Fundraising Campaign. For Michigan (MI) Soldiers, the campaign runs April 1 through May 15, although the worldwide campaign officially runs from March 1 through May 15. The MI AER Campaign Kick-Off Ceremony is scheduled for March 27 at 10 a.m. in the Vandenberg Conference Center, Selfridge ANG Base.

AER has been around since 1942, and is a vital tool used by Army Commanders to help take care of soldiers and their families during times of financial emergencies. Not only does AER help active duty personnel, it is also available to Retired service members and their dependents. Assistance can be provided with essentials such as utilities, food, transportation, and rent, just to name a few.

Last year, AER provided over $39 million in financial assistance to soldiers and their dependents. The AER campaign is an annual event that allows soldiers to help each other by making a voluntary contribution. Through the hard work of our Michigan Soldiers, the Selfridge AER Section collected $7,393.00 to AER during the 2002 Campaign. Your Campaign Representative will be putting up posters and passing out AER informational brochures. Let us make this year even more successful...remember AER helps the ARMY Take Care Of Its Own!!

Want to know more about AER or the Campaign? Visit us in building 780, room 13, call us at (586) 307-4514, or email your questions to AER@tacom.army.mil.

Selfridge Lodging Adds 5-Bedroom Apartments

Well-equipped Quarters That Can Sleep Up to Eight Adults/Teens

by Timothy Goodrow

Selfridge Lodging Manager

Selfridge Lodging added eight more transient guest houses to its inventory beginning in February. Located behind the existing guest houses in Building 916, right on Jefferson Avenue, the newly furnished apartments have 2, 4 and 5 bedrooms for a total of 54 beds.

All appliances and room furniture are newly purchased to include washer/dryer and dishwasher. Each apartment has a queen bed in the master bedroom, while remaining bedrooms have twin beds. Each unit has wall-to-wall carpeting, cable TV and telephone in both the living room and master bedroom. All units are furnished to current Army Lodging standards of excellence.

Primary use of the apartments will be for families transferring in/out (PCS) and those under temporary orders (TAD / TDY). Drilling reservists may also utilize the quarters if they are available on a drill weekend, or on a space-available basis as occupancy permits with an entitlement for use of military lodging.

This increase in quarters will better allow Selfridge Lodging to respond to the demand of temporary housing during the peak PCS and TAD/TDY season.

We thank all of you who have allowed Selfridge Lodging to be your first choice in military lodging accommodations.

Plans are still going forward for construction of a new hotel on the waterfront in Fiscal Year 2006.

Any questions or concerns can be addressed to the front desk at Lufbery Hall by stopping by or dialing (586) 307-4062.

Club Beyond Offers New Opportunities for Youth

It's Not Just Another Teen Hang-out!

by Kevin Collins
Community Youth Ministries

Youth for Christ (YFC) and Young Life (YL) have been in a ministry partnership for over 22 years. These two non-denominational ministries have joined in a partnership to reach out to the teens of the military through an organization called Military Community Youth Ministries (MCYM).

YFC and YL have been reaching high school teenagers with the life-changing message of Jesus Christ for nearly fifty years. You may have been involved with them when you were in High School. YFC ran clubs called Campus Life, Youth Guidance or Lifeline.

Club Beyond is a new opportunity for high school and middle school youth at Selfridge. During the summer of 2002, Selfridge chapel was able to come to agreement with MCYM to provide a full-time staff person to begin working with teens of the military. The summer was filled with events including a bike rally, a pool party complete with professional DJ, a Tigers baseball game and several music concerts, both on and off base. Music groups such as Michael W. Smith as well as Phillips, Craig and Dean and Antioch have been fun adventures for these teens. On some occasions their entire family is invited to join in the experience.

In the fall Club Beyond launched weekly meetings for the teens. Currently Club Beyond JV holds meetings on Monday evenings in the Chapel fellowship hall at 7:27 p.m. Club Beyond JV is open to students who are in the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades.

Club Beyond JV has had two lock-ins, one in September, which was held in Port Huron, the next was a Massive lockin was held in Flint, Michigan, in November.

MWR Wants Customer Feedback!

by Joe Stockslager
Marketing Specialist

Successful businesses throughout the nation have placed customer satisfaction in the forefront of daily operations. Most businesses have direct competitors, and they can normally be found within a short driving distance. Customers know this, and do not hesitate to seek out a competitor who is willing to go the extra mile to satisfy a customer.

Morale, Welfare, and Recreation at Selfridge is no different. We know that customers will go right outside the main gate to purchase, utilize, or rent something that is offered right here in local MWR facilities. To keep these customers, MWR must offer the same or better goods at a comparable cost.

Cost is a consideration, but even more important is customer service, and the goal of MWR is be no different. In fact, MWR facilities need to remain on the cutting edge of customer service and satisfaction. To meet this requirement, MWR has established numerous feedback tools. Patrons can complete customer comment cards (available in all facilities), complete the customer comment survey on our website (www.selfridge.army.mil/comment.htm), or speak with the facility manager directly.

We also just recently established the "MWR Customer Feedback Line," which customers can call 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Callers can phone to voice their comments about any area involving MWR facilities. To reach the MWR Customer Feedback Line, just call 307-4999, listen to the announcement, and record your message. MWR is committed to returning your call not later than the next business day.

Education CAN Make a Difference

by Karen Rische
Education Services Officer

Kudos to Staff Sergeant Jeff Hinkle, 171st Airlift Squadron, Michigan Air National Guard. SSgt Hinkle earned 54 college credits through testing in just two months. With these credits, and credit earned from his military experience, he completed his Community College of the Air Force (CCAF) degree and was hired as a co-pilot with Comair (Delta). He is currently three classes away from his Bachelor of Science degree and couldn't be happier.

Specialist Gregory Slagle (194th Field Artillery, Iowa National Guard) was a student at Vincennes University who was trying to obtain an additional 20 semester hours of college credits to meet the requirements for the US Army Officer Candidate Course (OCS).

SPC Slagle took College Level Examination Program (CLEP) tests and seminars with Vincennes and also submitted his Army Training Requirements and Resources System (AARTS) transcript (credit for military experience) for evaluation. He contacted Vincennes just before Christmas to request an updated transcript showing his credits. On January 6th, Tani Schneider, Vincennes Site Director for Selfridge, called SPC Slagle to follow up on his progress. He said he received his evaluation from the main campus and was short 4 credits for the OCS packet, so he didn't finish the application process. Ms. Schneider told him that he misread the evaluation and actually did have enough credit for his packet. She quickly prepared a letter outlining all of his credits and attached back-up documentation for his packet. He said the OCS class started on January 10th and it was too late. Ms. Schneider encouraged him to try anyway.

SPC Slagle is attending OCS! This success story is made possible by SPC Slagle doing his part by taking classes and tests to earn the credits to meet the requirement, and a huge effort by the unit and Ms. Schneider to pull everything together at the last minute.

The Education Center will have fond memories of Greg Slagle and Jeff Hinkle. Education CAN make a difference.

Do you have a Masters Degree with 18 Graduate Semester Hours in History, Science, English, Sociology, Psychology, or Humanities?

Call Vincennes University at (586) 307-5331 and ask about part-time teaching positions.

Here's a BIG THANK YOU From Selfridge Community Service's Emergency Assistance Program!!!

by Pat Mayfield

Army Emergency Relief Officer

On behalf of the 155 families who received food baskets and the 242 children who received toys/gifts on Christmas morning, the Selfridge Community Service's Emergency Assistance Program extends a heart-filled THANK YOU. Whether you were on base or within the neighboring communities, sharing your holiday spirit with such a generous donation helped make the holiday season brighter for someone else. Your kindness contributed to a successful 2002 Holiday Food and Toy Program.

The Emergency Assistance Program has received numerous thank you letters, notes and happy family photos from our Holiday Basket recipients. Here are some of their comments: "thank you for sharing your love with our family," "thank you for making our Christmas complete," "the children had a wonderful Christmas, thank you for the gifts and other items," "folks like you really makes us proud to live in a nation like we do," "help really made a difference" and "the children got a big kick out of the toys." Ultimately, the sentiment was the same in every handwritten note, letter and card... simply Thank You for this Holiday gift.

At this time, we say THANK YOU to the individuals, organizations, military Units and our anonymous contributors who made the 2002 Adopt-A-Family Program so special.

The snow is melting, the weather is warmer and the birds are singing. Can you tell Spring is in the air? This is the time of the year we tend to clean up our yards of the winter's havoc, open the windows to air our homes and begin to plan those household projects and family vacations. Most of us call this "Spring Cleaning," but this is also a good time for us to complete a little personal financial cleaning. We all should take a little extra time to review where we are in obtaining our financial goals or modify our plan of success. A few simple tasks can help you improve your financial success plan and possibly achieve your goals sooner than you thought can.

1. Calculate your net worth. It's simple. Just take inventory of your assets (things you own of value, i.e., home, automobile, savings or retirement accounts, jewelry, stocks, etc.), then subtract your liabilities (the outstanding debts or loans). The answer is your net worth! If you happen to owe more than own, you should seek the assistance of a professional financial counselor or planner.

2. Review the last six months of your spending plans (also known as budgets). Did you meet all your obligations? Did you have money left over? Can you account for at least 80% of your net income? Have you completed this year's budget? If not, it's time to implement a new plan of action or purchase a simple personal financial software program to help you manage your finances.

3. Assess your investment or savings portfolio. Were you able to save at least 5% of your annual net pay? Did you make regular contributions to your retirement account? Do you have at least three months of net pay in a savings or checking account? If not, maybe you forgot to "pay yourself," or purchased items you really didn't need but thought they'd be nice to have.

4. Think of ways to help you save more money during the year. Ever thought about saving your change for the entire month to see what you end up with? All this means is that if your purchase totals $10.29, you would give the cashier $11 and "pocket" the change ($.71) till the end of the month. You'll be surprised at the end of the month; most of us can save close to $50 in coins. Think of how many pennies you've passed up on the ground or placed your change into a donation jar at the store. How many ideas can you come up with?

5. Evaluate your short and long term goals. Simply review your goals and assess where you are. Do you need to revise your goals or the steps necessary to achieve those goals? Which goals did you accomplish last year? Did you make any new goals? Maybe you're someone who hasn't taken the time to write down your goals or plan—but at least you can still dream.

Five simple steps and you'll improve your personal finances. We need to take care of our finances now if we expect them to take care of us during our retirement. For more information about personal finances, money-saving techniques or free literature, please contact the Financial Readiness Program office at (586) 307-4554. We are located in Building 780, Room 13 and are open Monday through Friday, during regular business hours. In addition to the telephone number listed above, we may be reached via e-mail at jonesc@tacom.army.mil.
